Queensland Museum Network reaches far beyond the walls of its museums, connecting with millions of people across the state every year.

We've got a big job to do, and we're only partially funded by the State Government. We rely on the generosity of our visitors and supporters to continue our valuable research, create compelling experiences and share stories that inspire.

Support your museum and play a vital role in protecting, preserving and sharing Queensland's natural and social history.

Our job is too important to do alone and every gift makes a real difference.

Acknowledgement:

All supporters' names are acknowledged on the Queensland Museum Foundation Honour Board and in the Queensland Museum Foundation Annual Report for the corresponding year of donation.

How would you like to be acknowledged?
